

Aurélien Bomy

Born in Nantes in 1978, Aurélien developed a taste and interest for the arts at an early stage. He is a clinical psychologist.

In parallel with this path, he continues an artistic practice in various ways. He discovers and learns from other artists, designers and graphic designers, how to create, design, illustrate websites, and how to perform in web streaming, computer graphics, animation and video edition. He finds out the use of tools that allow him to give a new impulse to his artistic work, in photography and in the creation of animated collages.

Since 2013 he practices candid street photography capturing moments of life, scènes, everyday situations, attitudes of subjects in their urban environment focusing on poetic instants and cinematic atmospheres.

He is member of the International Street Photography and Reportage – ISP Magazine's team, of Pachie Photo, and of Association Pavlova for promotion of photographic practice in Nantes of many international street photography medias.
